Sterling Vacations' Iberian Treasures · Ports of Call

BARCELONA, SPAIN

Barcelona is a city of contrast with the ever-present whimsical architecture of Antoni Gaudí tossed in to delight the visitor. Fabulous architecture, world class museums, fashionable shopping and fine cuisine – Barcelona provides this and more to the visitor.

CASABLANCA, MOROCCO

Forever immortalized by the classic movie of the same name, Casablanca is Morocco's modern metropolis. Everything is bigger here: the streets, the hotels, the office blocks and the slums. The people themselves say that, "Casablanca has no memory and no past, only a future." A rich heritage of Art Deco architecture fused with North African elements acts as a tangible reminder of the city's French colonial past. Alternatively, a full day excursion to Marrekesh is a delightful experience.

FUNCHAL, PORTUGAL

The small city of 110,000 inhabitants is the capital city of the beautiful island of Madeira. This destination was even recently chosen as one of the best islands in the world by Tripadvisor. It is a little bit of Portuguese paradise in the middle of the Atlantic ocean. Madeira is known for a lot of things, the travel guides will tell you it is the island of flowers, but it is so much more than that. The unique and rare thing about this destination is that the landscapes are changing every 5 minutes. It is unbelievable what climates and scenery one tiny island like this can hold.

MALAGA, SPAIN

Malaga is perfectly situated in the heart of Spain's famous Costa del Sol. The Moors occupied this area of Spain for eight centuries and their influence is seen in the architecture, folklore and native costumes. The city is known as the birthplace of Pablo Picasso, and for the sweet Malaga dessert wines that come from the hilly vineyards just outside of town.

CIVITAVECCHIA (ROME), ITALY

From the port of Civitavecchia it is not far to the imposing ancient city of Rome, incomparable in terms of monuments, gardens, villas, and works of art: to name but a few, the Coliseum, the Capitol, Saint Peter's Basilica, ancient Ostia with the famous mosaics in the Baths of Neptune.

TENERIFE, CANARY ISLANDS, SPAIN

The largest of the Canaries, The island can be discovered through its cuisine and culture, with a magical combination of tradition and modern resorts. You can walk through historical districts such as that of La Laguna, a UNESCO World Heritage, close in proximity to such spectacular modern buildings as the Tenerife Auditorio.
