STERLING VACATIONS · NORTHERN EUROPE PORTS OF CALL

AMSTERDAM, NETHERLANDS

Amsterdam is one of the world's best hangouts, an enjoyable blend of old and new, where funky design boutiques brush shoulders with traditional stepped-gable houses. The city thrives on an eclectic, fashionable mix and despite being a highly popular vacation spot, still manages to retain its soul and preserve its quintessentially Dutch feel.

HAMBURG, GERMANY

Head for the Altstadt (old city) with its unique architecture and attractive canals. You may visit Michaelis Church, the most significant Baroque church structure in Northern Germany boasting an impressive 132 metre-high tower.

LE HAVRE, FRANCE

Le Havre is a large port town in the Normandy region of north-west

France. It was almost flattened during WWII, but today is a beacon to great modern architecture and a popular vacation resort thanks to its long, well-equipped beach. Worth pointing out to art-lovers is the Andre Malraux Museum, with a world-class collection of great French paintings. Le Havre is a great starting point for many destinations including the cathedral city of Rouen and the charming seaside resort of Honfleur.

SOUTHAMPTON LONDON), ENGLAND

Southampton's excellent South Coast location means that travel links by road, rail, sea and air are unmatched in the region. Details and maps of Southampton's four cruise terminals. Taxi fares to town are about 5 pound.

It is about a 5 minute cab ride to the train station. You have the option of four departures an hour and journey times of 70 to 90 minutes to London.

ZEEBRUGGE, BELGIUM

Historically, the city has many interesting sights including the Belfry of the 13th century cathedral on the Market Square. A boat trip along Bruges' pretty side canals is a great way to see the city. Belgium is famous for its chips, moules frites (mussels with fries) and waffles, as well as the much-celebrated Belgian beer. Local handicrafts are excellent and a great place to find fine Belgian lace, ceramics, and Belgian chocolate, which is typically shaped into seashells and filled with praline.
