Croatia, Slovenia, Venice · Ports of Call

KOPER, SLOVENIA

A visit to Capodistria means being catapulted into a port of the "Serenissima" Republic of Venice that administered the city for almost five centuries. In alternative you can enjoy an excursion to Ljubljana, the capital of Slovenia, a very beautiful city and yet to be discovered in which different architectural styles coexist harmoniously. One can explore Ljubljana with a tour along the river that cuts in in two, but also interesting are the Ponte Triplo (triple bridge), the splendid Tivoli gardens, and a visit to the Castle that towers over the city or the market, the heart of the city which will add unforgettable memories to your cruise.

KOTOR, MONTENEGRO

One of the oldest and most famous Montenegrin towns is Kotor. The coastal town is located in a most secluded part of the Gulf of Kotor, at the foot of mountain Lovcen. Kotor is a typical Mediterranean travel destination with old narrow streets, romantic bars and restaurants, small shops, antique monuments, churches and picturesque buildings. Famous poets and writers have used the beauty of the Bay of Kotor as inspiration for their works. Listed as UNESCO World Natural and Historical Heritage Site, Kotor has become a famous yachting and sailing destination for skippers around the globe.

RAVENNA, ITALY

A must-visit city located on the Adriatic coast in North-East Italy, Ravenna was briefly the capital of the Roman Empire and later the Italian capital of the Byzantine Empire. During this time, incredible mosaics were constructed throughout the city. Described as a symphony of color in Dante's Divine Comedy, Ravenna's well-preserved mosaics are some of the finest remaining in the Western world. .

VENICE, ITALY

This incomparable city never fails to exceed expectations. The majesty of St. Mark's Square, the romance of gondolas gliding along the canals and the beauty of the famed Murano glassware are just a small part of the wonders. Venice is possibly the world's most romantic city.

ZADAR, CROATIA

On your Mediterranean cruises to Croatia, the ancient capital of Dalmatia, Zadar is one of the runaway success stories of the Croatian Adriatic, combining ancient and medieval heritage with a bustling café life, a vibrant bar scene and the kind of go-ahead architectural projects (such as the Sea Organ) that give the seafront the appearance of a contemporary art installation.
